ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

DOG TRAINING INSTRUCTOR

- Teach group dog training classes for up to 12 clients and their dogs. Touch base with clients and answer questions as time permits before and after class. Review homework and skills and introduce new exercises and skills each week. Ensure that the teaching space is set up appropriately before class and is cleaned up with all equipment put away after class.
- Send follow-up emails to class clients. Recap new skills and provide training tips and reminders. Optionally include links to other training sources, including video, as well as handouts or other reference material.
- Consult with clients regarding “next class” options that are best suited to their skill level and dog’s behavior.

VOLUNTEER MANAGEMENT AND TRAINING

- Supervise and work with Dog Training Assistant volunteers (DTAs). Explain equipment needs for each weekly class. Ensure that DTAs are integrated into the training instruction and practice and are viewed as part of the training “team.” Provide feedback to DTAs regarding their assistance with class operations and clients.

CUSTOMER SERVICE

- Promote and emulate exemplary customer service by providing courteous, prompt and response service to internal and external customers.
- Fosters teamwork, creativity and a work culture aligned with MHS mission and values.
- Works well with volunteers and provides training in procedures and protocols as needed.

CLASS MARKETING

- Collaborate with Supervisor and other Instructors to develop, market and promote new classes to the public. Conduct demonstrations and workshops, attend special events, and write articles for Society and outside publications.
